Leading a Learning Network

This 15-hour course provides an overview of a structured continuous improvement network model, which has a proven track record of helping systems identify and solve unique problems of practice. Leveraging more than a decade of Learning Forward's experience facilitating networks that drive improvement in education, and designed for teams of education leaders at the system level, expert facilitators Michelle Bowman and Nick Morgan will help participants gain the knowledge, skills, tools, and strategies for creating a structured improvement network that will help them identify, and solve, a unique existing system-level problem.

Course activities begin on March 22, 2023.

The cost is $649 for Learning Forward members and $749 for non-members.
