Key Roles for Coaches

In a rapidly changing learning environment, clearly defined roles for instructional coaches is more critical than ever. “Key Roles for Coaches” is a 15-hour, three-week online course that will explore practical and powerful roles for instructional coaches responsible for helping teachers increase their capacity to serve all students. Facilitated by expert Learning Forward coaches Heather Clifton and Andy Mendelsberg, the course will include tools that support deep exploration and implementation of the roles of coaches, developing partnership agreements with teachers and leaders, and a deep dive into the essential coach roles of data coach and classroom supporter.

Course activities begin on February 13, 2023.

The cost is $649 for Learning Forward members and $749 for non-members.
