1 COURSE FEES & INFORMATION

Introduction to the Standards for Professional Learning

Learning Forward has created our first fully self-paced course to help individuals and teams build foundational understanding of the Standards for Professional Learning and their role in improving educator practice and student outcomes. This four-hour course features videos, readings, threaded real-world scenarios, personal reflections, and interactive activities designed to help apply your learning about the standards to your role. Perfect for both individuals and teams, this course supports educators in all roles to deepen their understanding of the connection between standards and student outcomes, reflect on the implication of standards for their systems and their roles, evaluate their own professional learning practices against the standards, and begin planning to take next steps in implementing standards in their system

The cost is $69 for Learning Forward members and $79 for non-members.
